*Only Jesus has the power to save!
His name is the only one in all the world that can save anyone. Acts 4:12 CEV*

Can you forgive me for another bird story? I was bicycling the open road when a fluttering on the ground caught my eye. I stopped my bike and looked. The fluttering began again, about 10 yards off the berm. I knew it was an injured bird. Thinking it was a dove, I went closer to investigate.

When I reached the bird, I discovered it was an American Kestrel or Sparrow Hawk, one of our smaller birds of prey. My intent from the beginning was to pick up the bird and place it under a bush for safe cover. That was before I knew what kind of bird it was.

Though helplessly grounded, the little hawk gazed at me with piercing yellow eyes, opened its mouth as if to bite, and stretched out its talons. It clearly communicated it did not want rescued and I believed it. I returned to my bike to continue my evening ride but the Lord wouldn't allow me to leave the little Kestrel to its own defenses. I returned, this time with the bike, not knowing what to do next. For whenever I bent over to pick it up in my gloved hands, I got the same reception – eyes, beak, talons.

I decided to test our resolve – the bird's and mine – by letting my front bicycle tire make the introductions. I inched the tire closer and closer. More eyes, open beak and talons. But then I went for broke and called the tiny raptor's bluff: I gently put my tire right up against its beak. To my surprise, the bird surrendered. It literally lost all its bluster and went limp. It knew that I knew it couldn't save itself and needed to depend on me to get it out of its predicament.

That Sparrow Hawk reminded me of myself. I'm thinking maybe you can identify with it too. The bible says that Jesus has come to seek and save what is perishing. In fact, it says only he can get us free and clear of our sin predicament. Only Jesus can save us. There is no other means.

So many times in life we are grounded and flopping about, pretending we're in control and not wanting anyone or anything to chip away at our rough and tough exteriors. With only a little more time and a lucky break we can save ourselves, we insist. The Lord sees us, stops and draws near but we keep him at arms' length, trying to convince ourselves that things aren't really as bad as they appear. I'm so glad that Jesus isn't dissuaded by our façade and doesn't give up on us like I almost gave up on that Kestrel.

Job 11:13-15 says, Surrender your heart to God, turn to him in prayer and give up your sins – even those you do in secret. Then...you will be confident and fearless. (CEV)

Surrender is an admission of defeat. Praise God surrender to Jesus Christ is an assurance of victory. I took that little bird and carried it to the high ground; Jesus does the same if you and I will only let him.

Picture Day

Celebrate the Family! A New Pictorial Directory is coming!

It has been exactly six years since our last “picture book” church directory. If you have a copy and you’ve looked at it recently, you are aware a lot has changed in that short amount of time!!!

A brand new pictorial directory from Lifetouch Photography is being prepared for publication and we need YOU to make our directory complete! It isn’t really a family album if you’re not part of it. Why? Because YOU are part of our church family!

The dates when pictures will be taken are Thursday, Friday, Saturday, May 3rd thru May 5th, and Tuesday and Wednesday, May 8th and 9th.

We will begin signing-up for our family sessions on Easter Sunday, April 1st. Be sure you take advantage of this opportunity to be professionally photographed and celebrate the family. We look forward to seeing your smile with everyone’s smile in our brand new directory!

April Sermon Themes Announced

At the Fall Council Meeting in November, we approved a new Mission Statement for the Chambersburg Church of the Brethren. A family of God growing in Christ, empowered to serve. After Easter, we’re going to break this statement into manageable segments and explore what each one means.

April 1st = Don’t be Fooled!

April 8th = All in the Family

April 15th = Our Family is Growing!

April 22nd = The Power of Family

April 29th = Family Style – A Brethren Understanding

It has been an exciting month at Nursery School. On March 7th, we officially changed our name to Smart Cookies Nursery School! We are looking forward to continuing to learn and grow at Smart Cookies.

This month, we have been learning about community workers. We have learned about doctors, veterinarians, dentists, construction workers, and supermarket employees. For the rest of the month we will be learning about fire fighters and post office workers. We went on field trip to Giant Supermarket, where the students were taught about healthy eating, how to brush their teeth, and about lobsters. We also went to the Marion fire station and learned about fire safety.

Looking ahead into April, the children will be learning about insects, spring, Easter, the senses, plants, and continuing on in learning the alphabet and numbers. We have a trip planned to attend Voila Creative Arts Center. I will be ordering some caterpillars and we will watch them turn into butterflies and also we will begin learning about plants.

We have an Open House scheduled for April 19th from 4:30-5:30 PM. If you know anyone who has a 3-4-year-old, please invite them to attend.

Jean and I have been blessed to be part of a Church Family that knows how to take care of each other. Your prayers have been part of the healing process, mentally and physically. Many acts of kindness, visits, meals, cards, and many more were appreciated. To get back to church after five months of absence was so overwhelming; we missed you greatly. A special thank you to Pastor Joel for his visits. As Paul said to the Philippians, "I thank my God upon every remembrance of YOU." YOU have touched us deeply, and will always be remembered by the way you have cared for us. Jean and I are aware we are not the only ones in our Church family hurting. We pray every day for those who need God's special touch.
