 Celebrating the Light of Christ among us

Call to Worship

We gather this morning in this house of worship which becomes a family of brothers and sisters in Christ because he is here. We add our human voices to the chorus of praise raised by the running streams and graduation of fall color.
We come as we are – distracted and weary, hopeful and open – knowing the Lord accepts us and is mindful of both our care and our joy. While there are many things to distract us, only one thing is important: in word, song and quiet we will give Jesus the time he needs to speak to our hearts, renew our faith and strengthen us for service.
