Recognition of Ezechiel Cadet

Ezechiel has been coming to this church since he was 16 years old. He was living with a Haitian family in Chambersburg. They visited the church and Jamie invited him to youth group. He came the next week and has been attending ever since (9 years ago). He was very active in the youth group and played on the church's basketball team that was coached by Seth Scott and Don Fogelsanger.

Zeek graduated from Kutztown University in December 2020. He holds a bachelor's degree in Foreign Language (Spanish) and a minor in Business Management.

He will be working for Mars Wrigley as a Territory Sales Manager. He will be selling candy to regional grocers in Portland, Oregon.

If you love only the people who love you, you will get no reward. If you are nice only to your friends, you are no better than other people. Even those who don't know God are nice to their friends. You must strive to be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect. Go in love. Go in peace. Go in God.

In a season of disruption and despair, the service will assure us of what "God has prepared for those who love him" (1 Corinthians 2:9) and how we can faithfully respond. Featured speakers include preachers Kurt Borgmann, pastor of Manchester Church of the Brethren in North Manchester, Ind., and Audri Svay, Bethany Seminary student and co-pastor of Eel River Community Church of the Brethren in Silver Lake, Ind.; worship leaders Cindy and Ben Lattimer, co-pastors of Stone Church of the Brethren in Huntingdon, Pa.; and an array of people from around the denomination who will offer additional expressions of worship leadership. A children's time will direct the theme to a younger audience. A wide array of music will include selections by Leah Hileman and Miami (Fla.) First Church of the Brethren. Links will be shared in February, including separate links for the service in English and in Spanish.
